

NCSHRM State Council's

HR PROFESSIONAL HALL OF FAME LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

(Sponsored by Constangy Law Firm)

The NCSHRM State Council recognizes North Carolina Human Resources Professionals for their outstanding lifetime accomplishments and/or contributions. This award is given in recognition of their service to the HR profession, leadership in the business community, and service to the civic community.

Criteria

Nominees must be (or have been) employed or primarily conduct business in the State of North Carolina. They should have demonstrated outstanding accomplishments and/or contributions which represent a lifetime of achievement, regardless of age. Examples may include, but not limited to:

- ✓ Service to the HR Profession
- ✓ Professional Leadership
- ✓ Leadership in the Business Community
- ✓ Service to the Civic Community
- ✓ Is not required to be an active NCSHRM Chapter Affiliated Member or National SHRM Member

Qualifications Include

- ✓ Must be or have been employed as an HR Professional for at least 20 years
- ✓ Must be or have been employed in the State of North Carolina (or primarily conducts business in the State of North Carolina)
- ✓ May be living or deceased

Award Nominations must be submitted by July 1, 2012

Award(s) will be presented at the NCSHRM Annual Conference

NCSHRM HR PROFESSIONAL HALL OF FAME LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

NOMINATION FORM

Award Nominations must be submitted by July 1, 2012. Award(s) will be presented at the NCSHRM Annual Conference.

To nominate an individual for consideration of this prestigious award, please complete the nomination letter below and attach a profile, resume, or nomination letter that provides information about the nominee that would support being considered for this lifetime achievement award.

TODAY'S DATE: _____

Dear Awards and Recognition Chair,

I hereby nominate _____ for NCSHRM's HR Professional Hall of Fame – Lifetime Achievement Award.

Attached is a profile of this individual and my detailed comments and documentation as to why this individual is deserving of this important state-wide lifetime achievement recognition.

The primary criteria for the award are:

- ✓ Service to the HR Profession
- ✓ Professional Leadership
- ✓ Leadership in the Business Community
- ✓ Service to the Civic Community
- ✓ Is not required to be an active NCSHRM Chapter Affiliated Member or National SHRM Member

Qualifications for the award include:

- ✓ Must be (or have been if retired or deceased) employed as an HR Professional for at least 20 years
- ✓ Must be or have been employed in the State of North Carolina (or primarily conducts business in the State of North Carolina)
- ✓ May be living or deceased

Please attach a detailed profile that will be used to judge the nominee on the criteria above. Include information about the individual's background, specifically as it relates to the criteria and qualifications noted above, and how the nominee has made a significant impact as well as any additional information that may assist the judges in their selection. Please also include current address, phone & email for person you are nominating. Your nomination responses should be no more than three (3) pages total. Please attach a resume if available (which is not part of the 3 pages maximum.)

Nominations should be emailed to Awards and Recognition with the attached nomination form and all supporting documentation. E-MAIL: NCSHRMawards2012@gmail.com (with "HALL OF FAME AWARD" in subject line)

The information presented in this nomination is, to the best of my knowledge, true and accurate.

Nominator Signature: _____ Email: _____

Printed Name: _____ Phone: _____

Nominator's Relationship to Person Being Nominated (ie., co-worker): _____

Questions? Please email NCSHRMawards2012@gmail.com or call Susan Stade at 704-587-3630 x 1. Thank you!